

Hot Links for Promoting Your Books From Dandelion Books Author, E. Lucas Taylor

<http://www.dandelion-books.com/sell-your-writing.html>
<http://www.dandelion-books.com/write-and-publish-fiction.html>
<http://www.dandelion-books.com/e-book-marketing.html>
<http://www.elucas-taylor.blogspot.com/>

CD BUSINESS CARDS - Justin Clegg and the 5 Pints crew

<http://www.5Pints.net>

Phoenix location. $1.20 EACH

Free gif, jpg converter:

<http://www.etrusoft.com/graphic-converter>

<http://www.processtext.com/abcimage.html>

<http://www.freebyte.com/graphicprograms>

<http://www.freeonlineconvert.com>

<http://www.aaapdf.com/doc2img/convert-doc-to-jpg-free.html>

http://freedownloadscenter.com/Authors/John_Wang.html

<http://www.omniformat.com>

POSTING ON WIKIPEDIA

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wikipedia:Village_pump

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wikipedia:About#Contributing_to_Wikipedia INDEPENDENT BOOKSTORES - Make sure that the American Booksellers Association, and its members are aware of your book. The ABA is the sponsor of the well-known "Book Sense" campaign, a national marketing program designed to bring awareness to independent booksellers. Make sure your title is included in the BookSense.com database by sending an email to the organization. For a very small fee, you can place a small text ad in the ABA email, which gets sent several times a month to more than 1,000 booksellers around the country. The ad costs $100 and generally results in about 25-50 booksellers requesting your book for review. (You aren't required to send to all book stores, as they know availability is first-come, first-served. But the more you can send, the more exposure you can garner for your book. URL:

<http://www.bookweb.org/booksense/publisher/3311.html>